Congrats to the Cafe Hegelhof!

Andrew Priest, Executive Director

After a walk around Museum of Vienna Philharmoniker, many visitors stop by this cafe. If you prefer Austrian cuisine, then Cafe Hegelhof is worth checking out.

Being at this place, taste nicely cooked wiener schnitzels, dumplings and goulash. The cooks here prepare good Sachertorte. Delicious beer is served

- try and enjoy. If you want to try some great coffee, this spot is a nice choice for you.

This cafe is well known for its great service and friendly staff, that is always ready to help you. According to the guests' opinions, prices are reasonable. There is a quiet ambiance and homey decor at Cafe Hegelhof.

CAFE HEGELHOF

Since: 1921

With its characterful design and original vintage interior with antique furniture. With oldest Viennese charm, for its opening in 1921, and to this day, this location is the favorite place for many locals and tourists.

The coffeehouse welcomes all who walk through its doors with majestic mirrors of handmade woodwork frames and chandeliers, and walls of art in old vintage rustic painting styles, with the Empire Ceiling Designs. The walls and Bar are decorated with cuddling warm candles lights and are offering unforgettable cozy relaxing atmosphere.

On their menu, you can find the typical Verlängerter and Melange, but also fancy liquor and rum-infused hot beverages, like the Original Viennese Schnitzel.

Since 1921 these days, while it welcomes all kind of people, it's a popular place amongst city.

Before being renamed, Café Hegelhof is was originally called 'Mery Bar' due its location of Johannesgasse and Ring incidentally is a place for popular Viennese bars and clubs.

From outside the Cafe Hegelhof, there's no chance you can realise what lives inside this 19th-century building and one of the oldest Vienna Coffee House recognized as UNESCO Heritage.
